George Luke

Honored

Wave 14 Feb 1985

Festivities at the Wasatch Co. Hospital honored George Luke on his 73rd Birthday, February the 8th. The Senior Citizens band played some well remembered musical selections. Ione Moulton performed some rousing dance numbers. Daryl Shumway, Lois Fox and Welburn Huffaker sang some sentimental old tunes. Many family and friends were here to take place in this festive occasion with George.

Melba Kinsey and George Luke would like to thank all who participated and enjoyed this affair. A special thanks to the Kitchen Staff for the beautiful cake.

George Luke was honored at the Wasatch County Hospital on his 73rd Birthday.

ALFRED SHARP for over fifteen years has been an honored public official of Wasatch County. He is county clerk, recorder and auditor. All classes of people know and appreciate his qualifications both as a business man and public servant.

Mr. Sharp has lived in this section of Utah all his life. He was born at Heber, February 19, 1886, son of Jonathan and Anna (Jowett) Sharp. His father came to Utah with one of the last ox trains across the plains. He was a steam engineer, and followed his occupation in many saw mills in the district. Later he took up farming and was one of the highly respected citizens of his district. He died January 1, 1919.

Alfred Sharp attended the grammar and high schools of Heber City, later completed a course in bookkeeping, and in such leisure as he has in his official duties he is devoting himself to the study of law. In 1911 he entered the livery business in Wyoming, but in 1912 returned to Heber, where he was a salesman and mechanic for the Studebaker Motor Company. In 1913 he became bookkeeper for the Heber Mercantile Company.

Mr. Sharp in 1916 was elected county clerk of Wasatch County. The county clerk is ex-officio, also auditor and recorder. The faithfulness and efficiency with which he has performed his duties has kept him continuously in office. He served three two-year terms, and is now in the second of his four-year terms. Mr. Sharp was also city treasurer of Heber in 1916-17. He is active in the Chamber of Commerce and is an elder in the Latter Day Saints Church, has been superintendent of the Sunday School at Heber, and is a member of the Mutual Improvement Association.

He married, July 8, 1911, Miss Della Eugene Michie, of Wasatch County. They have three children, Fenton L., N. Fawn and E. Lamar.
